Tick Tock

Perpetual:
never ending,
never changing.

I watch,
your hands move with the second
Tick
You look at me,
I look at you,
You look fragile,
like an old man
Tock

Time

The only constant in this world,
never ending,
never changing.
Tick
Your arms may stop,
but time,
it never will.
Tock

Time

Passively,

you watch.

The old man will age,

saying his last goodbye.

Tick

The child will no longer be a child anymore.

Tock

Time

I will never escape you.

afraid,

afraid of the future,

afraid of leaving this Earth,

of a last goodbye.

Time

Tick

I can't stop you,

for you hold time

in your arms.
